Join us in celebrating VOLUNTEERS whose time, energy and skills contribute to healthier communities. Are there personal benefits associated with volunteering? Why are volunteers vital to the success of Non-Profit Organizations?

Our Professional Speakers, Chantel Coward, Clinical Psychologist, and Eric Walter, Executive Director at the Georgian Bay Cancer Support Centre, who have a wealth of experience and knowledge, will respond to these questions and others.

Sue Cook, Occupational Therapist, Gavin Hamelin, Student and Karen Ptolemy-Stam, Minister, represent the volunteers in our communities. Each has provided hours of their time and energy to a variety of community organizations and causes.

After seven successful years of delivering health education programs to our community, this will be our final program. It has been a privilege to bring these presentations to our viewers. Please join us for this our last evening of learning and celebration.

This event will be held at the Midland Cultural Centre with free admission. Register at: https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/our-health-healthy-communities-need-volunteers-tickets-638779936987?aff=odeimcmailchimp&mc_cid=b721dae364&mc_eid=UNIQID

It will also be broadcast on Rogers TV throughout Simcoe County (Channels 53, 65 and 10) and streamed live at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4GSq94sFKnc>
